ARIK ARMSTEAD

HT	WT	COLLEGE	DL
6-7	292	OREGON	DL
BORN 11.15.94 // SACRAMENTO, CA // PLEASANT GROVE HS, ELK GROVE, CA ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '15

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his NFL debut vs. Min (9/14).
- Registered 3 tackles and the first sack of his NFL career at Arz. (9/27), bringing down QB Carson Palmer for a 4-yd. loss.
- Part of a defensive line unit that held the Falcons to 17 yds. rushing on 14 carries (1.2 avg.) vs. Atl. (11/8). This marked the 4th fewest rushing yards allowed in a game by the 49ers since 2001.
- Registered his second sack of the season at Cle. (12/13), taking down QB Johnny Manziel for a 8-yd. loss.

GOLDMINE

- Armstead's brother, Armond, was forced to retire before ever playing a down in the NFL. After playing collegiately at USC, Armond became an All-Star for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, helping the team win the league's 100th Grey Cup. He went on to sign with the New England Patriots in 2013, but medical issues forced him to hang up his cleats. "The biggest thing he has told me through this process is, 'at the end of the day, it's just football.' Having a brother who played at this level makes everything less overwhelming."
- If Armstead wasn't in the NFL, he would be playing basketball. He was a three-year starter in basketball at Pleasant Grove High School in Sacramento and played two years at the University of Oregon before focusing solely on football for the 2014 season. He entered his high school senior season listed as the number three prospect in NorCalPrep.com's Top 40 rankings for the class of 2012. "A big part of the recruiting pitch from Oregon was they were going to let me play two sports. We only lost 5 games during my time there. I wanted to go somewhere with the chance to win and be a part of something special."
- For Armstead, the NFL Draft process was a whirlwind tour. He went straight from the National Championship Game to San Diego to prepare for the NFL Combine and then to Sacramento for the Draft itself. However, his favorite part of the process was being drafted by a team so close to his hometown. "It's a dream come true. I'm blessed to be in this situation. Not a lot of other people are that close to home. Being able to play home games in front of my family is perfect for me."

ARMSTEAD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lists his parents, Gus and Christa, as the most influential people in his life. He also gives credit to his grandfather, Willie B. Armstead, an Air Force veteran, for instilling the value of integrity that his parents have passed along to him. "A lot of things he instilled in my dad have carried down to me. Having a family member who is more courageous than you can imagine and who served his country is a huge honor."
- Played both basketball and football at Oregon before focusing only on football in 2014.

- Bethea spent July 4, 2015 on the athletic fields of his alma mater, Denbigh HS, VA, hosting his inaugural "Community Day" where local kids had a chance to enjoy some bounce houses, cotton candy, and participate in a kickball game with Bethea and other NFL players. "My message to the kids is that you can't do it without the community. I want to give back to my community and have everybody come out here and have a good time. This is just my way of showing them I appreciate them for their support."
- Bethea has teamed up with PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals) to spread the message about a few of their different campaigns. One was the "Ink, Not Mink" movement, in which Antoine talked about his tattoo and said no to fur. Another was the "Don't Chain Dogs" campaign, where Bethea spoke about his love for dogs and how animals that are dependent on humans shouldn't be left alone and mistreated.

GOLDMINE

- Boldin established the Anquan Boldin Foundation (Q81 Foundations) in 2004, which is dedicated to expanding the educational and life opportunities of underprivileged children. Core services of the foundation support after-school programs, full-time scholarships with the support of the University of Phoenix, and dental care and food programs. "For me it was something that I always wanted to do," said Boldin. "Even if I didn't make it into the NFL, giving back is something that is close to my heart." More information on the Anquan Boldin Foundation is available at www.Q81.org.

- Over the course of 11 years of hard work and an increase in partnerships and resources, the Q81 Foundation has showcased charitable activities in Phoenix, Baltimore, South Florida and the San Francisco Bay Area. Education is the main focus. The Foundation conducts an annual, eight-week, Q81 Summer Enrichment Program in partnership with Florida Crystals. It also serves the community by awarding great scholastic and community achievement in youth, distributing over 10 four-year college scholarships to date.
- In April of 2015, Boldin hosted the 11th Annual Q-Festival with proceeds benefiting his foundation. The weekend-long event took place at the world-renowned PGA National Resort & Spa located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL. This year's activities included a golf tournament, a celebrity basketball game at his alma mater, Pahokee High School, and a "Fun Day in the Park." "Q-Fest is more than just a fun time for me; it is also dear to my heart, because I always wanted to give back to my community that was kind to me when growing up," said Boldin.

- He was named one of three finalists for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award in 2014. The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only league award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. He was the 49ers Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2014, the Baltimore Ravens Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2010 and 2012, as well as the Arizona Cardinals Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2004.

- In November of 2014, Boldin and his wife, Dionne, announced a $1 million endowment to the Q81 Foundation for continued distribution of college scholarships.

- The Foundation conducts annual Thanksgiving and Holiday Shopping sprees as well as collaborative efforts in supporting football camps, tournaments, and the annual Q-Festival Weekend held in South Florida each April.

- The NFL Players Association awarded Boldin $100,000 to the Anquan Boldin Foundation for winning the prestigious Byron "Whizzer" White Award, the highest honor given to a player by the NFL-PA. The award honors the player who serves his team, community and country in the spirit of Byron Raymond "Whizzer" White.
- In March of 2013, Boldin went on a trip to Senegal with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald to try to help understand and change the mining policies that stripped the natives of their land and left them with nothing. "We wanted to go over there, see the entire process, see how things are run and just come back to the U.S. and advocate for the people who really don't have a voice. We have a trip scheduled to Washington D.C. so that we can actually talk to congress and try to get the policies changed."
- Boldin was inducted into the Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame on March 25, 2012, and was honored as a 2012 Distinguished Alumni by the Education Foundation of Palm Beach County, Inc. Another special honor that Boldin has earned in his hometown of Pahokee, FL, is the name of Pahokee High School's football stadium, Anquan Boldin Stadium.

- In April of 2012, Boldin made a mission trip to Ethiopia along with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald to bring attention to the horrible drought in East Africa. "One of the villages that we went to had a canal around their crops and they had a huge problem with hippos," he said. "So they needed some kind of protection to keep the hippos out. We went there, bought fences, and built fences around the crops so that the hippos couldn't damage the crops anymore." He also helped build retaining walls in one village so that when it did eventually rain, the villagers could catch the water and grow vegetation.
- After the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Boldin, along with several teammates, visited displaced hurricane refugees in Phoenix, AZ. He served food and drinks to the Louisiana residents, while donating money to the Hurricane Relief Disaster Fund.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Part of an offensive line group that helped the team rush for 230 total yds. vs. Min (9/14), the most in franchise history during a season opening game. The O-Line helped pave the way for RB Carlos Hyde as he rushed for a NFL Week 1-high of 168 yds. and 2 TDs.

GOLDMINE

- The one person Boone always admired and wanted to be like was his grandfather. "My grandfather raised my brother and I with good morals and good values," said Boone. "He was always there for us." Alex saw him as a smart person who everyone looked up to. A very religious man, the two of them prayed together regularly and attended church every Sunday. His grandfather passed away when he was young, which left a void in his life. "It crushed me. I never really had to be by myself." Boone vividly remembers the moment he heard the news. "I remember I was eating pizza and I was 13 years old." Talking to his grandmother about him has been a breath of fresh air, reassuring Boone that his grandfather will always be with him. "He was a funny guy who loved to laugh. He was a real jokester. I try to be like him every day."
- Boone remains very active in the Bay Area community. In late November of 2013, Boone participated in the 7th Annual tree lighting ceremony in San Francisco.

BOONE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- A rhinoceros at the San Francisco Zoo was named after him, Boone.
- Earned the Bobb McKittrick Award in 2013, awarded to the offensive lineman who best displays the qualities of the former 49ers offensive line coach.

- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for the zoo's endangered black rhinoceros named Boone, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers guard. In January of 2013, the San Francisco Zoo invited Alex to be the zookeeper for a day, where he fed giraffes, polar bears and other animals, learned the tools of the trade and met the black rhino who now shares his name. The black rhinos are the most aggressive species of rhinoceros. Black rhinos are known for their power in plowing through and running over things, which matches Boone's playing style on the gridiron. "We're very similar. It's very fitting. I'm very humbled and very honored to have a rhino named after me," Boone said. "I got to feed him, got to pet him, a very soft face, the horn, unbelievable to touch that. It's an honor and a blessing to have such a beautiful animal named after me." This also earned Boone the nickname "The Rhino."
- In the offseason following his rookie season, Boone returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O-Lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex returned for training in the best shape of his life. He dropped 40 pounds of fat before putting 25 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Boone said. "He has helped me with my footwork, my initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."

GOLDMINE

- Established the "4th & Goal Foundation," which aims to impact the lives of children through the San Francisco Bay Area. Bowman's goal for his foundation is to build play zones around the Bay Area that will provide state-of-the-art playgrounds to low-income elementary schools so that their students will have a safe outdoor environment to increase social, emotional and cognitive skills as well as a space for increased physical activity. The first play zone will be installed in the summer of 2016 and the hope is to impact the lives of 10,000 children by the end of 2017.

- Bowman hosted his 2nd Annual NaVorro Bowman Football Camp, a free youth camp for local children in his home community of Forestville, MD in June of 2015. He partnered with the District Height Boys and Girls Club, a group in which Bowman was a member while growing up.

- Bowman and other NFL Players joined the Wounded Warriors Amputee Softball Team (WWAST) for a game of softball at Bowie Baysox Stadium in Maryland to raise funds for Veterans Amputee Charities. This marked the third year of the event, but the first time NFL players participated. Bowman and teammate DT Darnell Dockett served as team captains for the game that ended in a 14-14 tie.

- In June of 2015, Bowman hosted the inaugural "Celebrity Steak-Out", raising money for underprivileged youth in the community. "I wasn't too privileged growing up," Bowman said. "I had to scratch and claw and find things to do as a child.

And me being where I am today, I'm able to provide something, especially for kids who don't have as much as the next kid. So I really want to provide inner-city, low-income students in the Bay Area with a safe place to play."

- Bowman works with the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA and recently received an award for his efforts in the program. He has participated in numerous events, including a night of bowling to benefit children, and a toy drive during the holiday season.

- In 2013, Bowman traveled to Africa to participate in the Pros for Africa program, which partners with the Starkey Hearing Foundation to provide more than 4,100 customized hearing devices for those in need. NaVorro and other NFL players helped fit patients with hearing aids. "By giving hearing aids, we have blessed these people and put smiles on their faces. We were able to give them a whole new life."

- Bowman was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high-crime area. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became his outlet from the streets and drugs. "My parents had been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach. He really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."
- Two important and influential people in Bowman's life abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart, while his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game in 2009. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. It's made me stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."
- He earned his degree in criminal law and justice and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from the area will help others listen to him. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field - to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head from my neighborhood."

AWARDS & HONORS

2013: USA Today All-Joe Team, NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 5)

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 4 tackles, 1 INT and 2 PD vs. Min. (9/14), picking off Vikings QB Teddy Bridgewater and returning it 26-yds.
- Recorded a career-high 10 total tackles and 1 INT at NYG (10/11), picking off QB Eli Manning for his 9th career INT.
- Registered 1 INT and 1 PD vs. Sea. (10/22), intercepting QB Russell Wilson in the end zone for his 3rd INT of the season and 10th of his career.

GOLDMINE

- Brock's path to the NFL was not an easy one by any means. From the small country town of Gulfport, MS, he traveled 30 miles north to Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Perkinston, MS, where he spent two seasons before transferring to the University of Minnesota. Why would a southern boy decide on Minnesota? "I wanted to see what a big city felt like," Brock said. After one year, he transferred back down south to Belhaven University in Jackson, MS, a small Christian NAIA school.
- In February of 2011, Belhaven retired Brock's jersey for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels. He is the only player in the history of the school's program to have played in the NFL.

- Brock's passion for sports was developed at an early age and he would like to remain in athletics either as a coach or personal trainer after his playing career is through. "I want to teach people what I know and watch them perform and compete," Brock said. His father encouraged him to join a football league in elementary school, and he also played basketball and ran track for his school's team. Recreationally, he played kick ball and baseball in his neighborhood. "My friends were all competitive with each other," he said. "We all wanted to be the best in the group."

BROCK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is the first player in Belhaven University's history to play in the NFL. The University also retired his jersey in 2011.
- Had a variety of part-time jobs growing up in Gulfport, MS. He worked at Sparkle Car Cleaning, a Krispy Kreme shop and a Sonic fast food restaurant.
- In 2013, finished t-5th in the NFL with 5 INTs.

GOLDMINE

- Prior to the 2012 season, Bush twice served as guest co-host with Kelly Ripa on her national morning TV show, "LIVE! With Kelly." Bush made his first appearance on the show in January as the guests included movie star Mark Wahlberg. He returned to the show on May 18, where he interviewed fellow USC alumnus and "Blue Bloods" star, Tom Selleck.

- During his time in Detroit, Bush teamed up with Carhartt, a clothing brand that is the designer of workwear, lifestyle, men's women's, kids', footwear and personal protective clothing, in an effort to give appreciation to local police and firefighters. He attended an appreciation barbeque that included the cooking of 500 steaks simultaneously, which set a world record. Said Bush, "We are honoring the men and women, the true heroes of our community; police officers and firefighters. These people, every time they step out of the house they're putting their life on the line to make our community a safer place. My mom was actually a police officer, so this one is near and dear to my heart for me and we really appreciate the work that they do for us and making the community a safer place."

- As a member of the Saints in 2010, Bush visited South Africa to cheer on the U.S. national soccer team in the World Cup. In the "Futbol Meets Football" campaign, Reggie and soccer star David Beckham matched skills in a great series of ads that featured Reggie taking penalty kicks and Beckham in a helmet and shoulder pads. Bush said, "That was cool. He was with Real Madrid at the time, before he came to L.A. It was cool, getting the chance to meet him and talk to him. I was kind of sizing him up a little bit."
- Following his selection by the Saints in the 2006 NFL Draft, Bush became heavily involved in the community. He donated $86,000 to resurface the field at Tad Gormley Stadium so high school athletics could be played again at the stadium. He also donated 12 vehicles to New Orleans, state and government agencies, served as a regional spokesman for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.
- Bush partnered with Ralphs and Tide to put on the "Unplug and Play Reggie Bush ProCamp" in La Mesa, CA during July of 2015. He highlighted the finer points of football as campers experienced various stations specializing in fundamental football skills and participated in touch football games.

TANK CARRADINE

HT	WT	COLLEGE	DT
6-4	295	FLORIDA STATE
BORN 2.18.90 // CINCINNATI, OH // TAFT HS, CINCINNATI, OH 3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2A IN '13

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 1.0 sack vs. Min. (9/14), giving him 5.0 career sacks.
- Recorded the first FF of his career, knocking the ball loose from QB Carson Palmer at Arz. (9/27)
- Made the first start of his NFL career vs. Cin. (12/20).

GOLDMINE

- Carradine grew up in a rough neighborhood in Cincinnati, where many of the people he knew got into bad situations with drugs and violence. He grew up without much money and his family struggled to put food on the table. Through it all, he learned to walk the other way. "I saw how certain situations can end up. Talking to the older people and coaches, they told me to do the right thing," he said. "Good things happen when you try to do the right things. That was the biggest thing I learned." Football was the biggest opportunity which propelled Carradine out of the area, receiving a college scholarship and earning a degree in sociology from Florida State. "People kept telling me, 'Man, I wish I had that opportunity to play this sport.' I'd seen my opportunity and knew the chances I had, knew what I would be doing if I didn't accomplish these goals. That's why I thrive on football. I give it all I've got and I try to play every play like it's my last. I respect this game because of what this game has gotten me through. I take advantage of it by doing the right thing, being a positive player and being good to my teammates and for the organization."
- After going through a rough childhood, Carradine has a passion for telling his story to kids. He volunteers his time at charity foundations and football camps. "If kids can hear the importance of doing the right thing, if I can help them succeed in life, if they can get it when they're young, they'll live up to those things instead of trying to get knowledge as they got older," he said. "Then it might be too late, because they've already been on their own in certain situations."

CARRADINE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Given the nickname "Tank" as a young child from his mom because he always carried a toy tank with him.
- Recorded the first two sacks of his NFL career last season at Sea. (12/14), bringing down Seahawks QB Russell Wilson.
- Visited Haiti in conjunction with Convoy of Hope, working together to teach healthy eating habits and sustainable agriculture techniques to local families.
- Loves unique animals and once owned a large collection of exotic pets, including snakes, lizards, ferrets, a monkey, a bird, piranhas and a shark.
- In 2010, earned First-Team NJCAA All-America, All-Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference and All-Region VI honors and was named Region VI Defensive Player of the Year.
- Began collegiate career at Butler Community College (KS) before enrolling at Florida State.

- Along with 49ers TEs Vance McDonald and Garrett Celek, visited Haiti in conjunction with Convoy of Hope, working together to teach healthy eating habits and sustainable agriculture techniques to local families. The players also visited an orphanage and local schools to spend time with underprivileged youth. "Being able to be around the kids and see the excitement on their face. I see what kind of stuff they go through and I see how they live. I realize they can use a lot of help and I've been more than fortunate to be able to help them."

- Born Cornellius Carradine, he was given the nickname "Tank" from his mom. He always used to have a little toy army tank with him. "I could never go anywhere without that army tank," he said. "I just had to have it with me, and I used to always push people over, try to run over people." His mom still has the original toy tank.
- Just prior to entering high school, Carradine, a Cincinnati native, frequented Bengals games every chance he could. "At the time, I was playing Pee-Wee football and I was also a big fan of Justin Smith. I remember many of the players, including Justin, came and painted our youth center, so I got a chance to meet him." Carradine continued, "He was my favorite player, first-round draft pick. It's crazy that I played with him. I always wanted to talk football with him and ask him questions, I'm always asked him about how to identify run or pass, tips that the offensive line give away, things like that." Carradine also believes he helped him learn a great deal about how to make the transition from a speed-rushing defensive end to a power-rushing defensive tackle, a change that Justin Smith had to make earlier in his career as well.
- Carradine loves animals and once owned a large collection of exotic pets, including snakes, lizards, ferrets, a monkey, a bird, piranhas and a shark. "I could see myself doing animal research working in a zoo," he said.

GOLDMINE

- Celek has a strong passion for the packaging industry, which he majored in at Michigan State and plans to go into the business after his football career is more complete. The growing industry looks to cut shipping costs on products and is commonplace in the food and medical fields. "There's so many different areas you can get into, it's crazy. I enjoy the science behind it. It was a great major for me to choose and the possibilities are endless."
- Football runs in the bloodlines of the Celek family. Garrett's older brother, Brent, plays tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles. Growing up, the brothers were constantly involved in athletics. "My dad was always pushing us just to be into sports. As long as we were doing something and we were having fun with it, he was the happiest guy in the world," Garrett said. He didn't begin playing football until high school, but Brent's success became a driving motivation for him. "He got a scholarship to Cincinnati my freshman year in high school," Garrett said. "Right then I had my goals set. I've got to do what my brother did. Honestly, I've been trying to follow in his footsteps and because of him I'm here today. I wouldn't be who I am without him."
- Along with fellow 49ers TE Vance McDonald and DT Tank Caradine, visited Haiti in conjunction with Convoy of Hope, working together to teach healthy eating habits and sustainable agriculture techniques to local families. "We've been to an orphanage, we've been to a farm, we've been to schools. It's a beautiful country and these are beautiful people. I'm glad I had this opportunity."

CELEK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

GOLDMINE

- With one second remaining in the 2013 Iron Bowl between Auburn and Alabama, Davis returned a missed FG 100-yds. for a game-winning TD, propelling No. 5 Auburn to victory over No. 1 Alabama. "Some people say not having a father around to play catch with and do all that. I try to do all those things with my son. I try to be a great father to my son. I never forget why I'm doing this. My family is one of the biggest reasons I'm doing this, to take care of my family."

DAWSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Holds the highest all-time FG percentage among kickers with 300-or-more FG made in NFL history (84.1%).
- In 2013, set the 49ers franchise record with 27 consecutive FG made.
- Is a perfect 9-for-9 on FGs made and 9-for-9 on XPA in his playoff career.
- Was part of an infamous field goal attempt against the Baltimore Ravens in 2012 that eventually led to a rule dubbed the "Phil Dawson Rule." Dawson kicked a 51-yard field goal on the final play of regulation that bounced off the left upright and caromed off the rear "gooseneck" attachment behind the crossbar. The attempt was originally ruled no good, but the officials reversed the call following a discussion even though the play was not technically reviewable. The next year, a rule change was made to allow certain field goals to be reviewed by instant replay.
- His wife, Shannon, is a professional singer, who performed as a backup singer for Wayne Newton in Las Vegas. She released her country/contemporary Christian mix album titled Redemption on September 11, 2013.

GOLDMINE

- During the 2008 and 2011 seasons, Dawson teamed up with the Adoption Network to invite families who have recently adopted children to each Browns home game so they can form new memories as a family. "The reason behind all this is my wife was adopted so we have a pretty special place in our hearts for families trying to adopt," Dawson said.
- Was active in the Cleveland community and founded the "Dawson's 4 Adoption" season ticket program which provided tickets, apparel and food for the Adoption Network Cleveland organization.
- Dawson's two main hobbies now are actually his first two part-time jobs growing up. His first official job in middle school was driving the tractor that picks up the golf balls at the driving range. "For every tray of balls I would bring in and pour in the washer, I'd get $3," said Dawson. "The busier the driving range, the more money I made." His other job was mowing lawns. He and a friend would mow about 30 lawns every week during the summers. "I love golf and I love yard work," he said.

BORN 7.21.90 // CLAY, AL // CLAY-CHALKVILLE HS, CLAY, AL 3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED D-5 IN '13

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered his first sack of the season vs. Sea. (10/22), dropping Seahawks QB Russell Wilson for a 2-yd. loss.
- Recorded the first blocked kick of his career at StL (11/1), blocking a 40-yd. FGA by Rams K Greg Zuerlein.
- Part of a defensive line unit that held the Falcons to 17 yds. rushing on 14 carries (1.2 avg.) vs. Atl. (11/8). This marked the 4th fewest rushing yards allowed in a game by the 49ers since 2001.
- Registered 1.0 sack and his second blocked kick of the season at Cle. (12/13), blocking a 42-yd. FGA by Browns K Travis Coons. According to Elias, Dial became the first member of the 49ers to register 2 blocked FGs in the same season since DE Lawrence Pillers blocked 2 FGs in 1983.

GOLDMINE

- In 2014, Dial started his own foundation called "QD Kids." The mission is "to show love and support to underprivileged kids today so they will have the best opportunity to be our leaders of tomorrow." Dial held a fundraiser at a bowling alley that also featured the raffling of autographed jerseys and held a holiday toy drive in December of 2014 to benefit his foundation.
- Dial connected with Alex Fernandez, a 20-year-old 49ers fan who lost his battle with brain cancer in July of 2015. One of the things that Fernandez wanted to do before he passed was to see a 49ers game at Levi's® Stadium. Through "QD Kids," Dial sent Fernandez a package consisting of 49ers items: A team blanket, jerseys from QB Colin Kaepernick and LB Patrick Willis, an autographed football, hats and a poster. Dial included a signed jersey of his own and also included a video message for Fernandez. After he passed, Dial said on Twitter, "I want Alex Fernandez to know that he has made a difference in my life by sharing his story," Dial wrote. "He is my hero, and people like him encourage me to continue our work through our non-profit QD Kids. I lead this non-profit in order to make 'moments' count for all children and adults who are combating challenges in their life. My first game is going to be dedicated to him for being a brave hero and for making a difference in the lives of others."
- In 2015, Dial was very active during the offseason. He spent time at the Bill Wilson Center with underprivileged youth, participated in a Special Olympics basketball game and helped a terminal cancer patient check 'attending a 49ers game' off his bucket list by visiting him in the hospital and supplying him with a bunch of 49ers gear.

DIAL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Earned his first career NFL start at NYG (11/16) and first career sack at NO (11/9) during the 2014 season.
- Dial's mother passed away when he was 10. His father fell on difficult times, ultimately unable to support him any longer and he was brought in by the families of his church.

- As an event for "QD Kids," Dial helped organize a fundraiser called "Bowling 4 Backpacks" in July of 2015. All of the proceeds from the event went directly to buying school supplies and backpacks for kids in need.
- Dial's church family has played a major role in his life and has positively impacted him, making him the man he is today. "They have supported me a lot throughout the years," said Dial. "They encouraged me and prayed with me. I would say my church family is my biggest supporter that I have right now and has helped me to get where I am today."

AWARDS & HONORS

2013: 49ers Blue Collar Player of the Year - Defense

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Part of a defensive line unit that held the Falcons to 17 yds. rushing on 14 carries (1.2 avg.) vs. Atl. (11/8). This marked the 4th fewest rushing yards allowed in a game by the 49ers since 2001.

GOLDMINE

- In 2011, Dorsey teamed up with PETA, urging dog owners across the country to protect their pets during harsh weather conditions by bringing them indoors. "I love my dog. I don't have any kids, so he's like my best friend. PETA came to my house and did a photo shoot with myself, and my three-year-old English Bulldog, Bugsy. It was cool. It was a good deal working with PETA. It was for a good cause and it was fun."
- Had the nickname 'Putt' as an infant because he would only get up and walk when a Putt-Putt commercial would come on TV.
- Growing up, Dorsey's grandmother, Pearl Nabor, introduced him to the San Francisco 49ers, foreshadowing his future with the team, "I used to watch the 49ers all the time when they had WR Jerry Rice and all of those great players. I used to watch them with my grandma. That was her favorite team. When I came here, it was like, 'Wow, I used to watch these guys all the time.' This was my favorite team and now I get to play for them. My grandmother passed away a few years ago, but she was the person that turned me on to the 49ers."

DORSEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Registered a career-high 100 tackles during his first season as a member of the 49ers in 2013.
- Started the Glenn Dorsey Foundation which is "Founded on the principle that everyone, regardless of age, socioeconomic background and life circumstance should dream bigger."
- Had to wear metal braces on his legs as a 3-year old due to having severely bowed legs.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his 49ers debut vs. Sea. (10/22) and recorded 1 tackle.

GOLDMINE

- As a freshman at Penn State, Hodges switched positions from safety to linebacker. In his new position group was current teammate NaVorro Bowman, a senior at the time, and Dallas Cowboys LB Sean Lee, both of whom he gives credit to for showing him the way. "I learned so much from Navorro and Sean, seeing how they approached football, and studying film, you couldn't help but to follow in their footsteps."
- Hodges says he learned a lot about himself during his time at Penn State thanks to head coach Joe Paterno. "He was like a father figure. He talked a lot of football but he also talked a lot about respect and it was a blessing to play for him."
- Hodges was one of the top high school wrestlers in New Jersey, advancing as far as the state semifinals during his junior year. He recognizes the grueling three-hour workouts in 115-degree gymnasiums for instilling mental toughness in him.

HODGES' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Acquired from the Minnesota Vikings on 10/6/15.
- Was teammates with LB NaVorro Bowman at Penn State in 2009.
- Appeared in 29 games over three seasons with Minnesota.

- Recorded 21 carries for 93 yds. and 1 TD at NYG (10/11), his 3rd TD of the season.

GOLDMINE

- Hyde and the other members of the 49ers 2014 rookie draft class visited Oak Grove High School to launch the "49ers Mentorship Program." The program focuses on character development through mentorship and accountability. Hyde and his teammates spent the afternoon with the boy's varsity football team and taught them about the mentor/mentee relationship and the pros and cons of posting on social media.

- Hyde has always been a competitive person and that's helped him get to where he is today. "I think that my competitiveness came from having best friends that played the same sports. So, it's like you want to be the best at those sports because everybody recognizes the best."

HYDE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played on the 2007 Naples state champion football team (Naples, FL). He also played basketball, ran track and mentored elementary school children.
- Hyde credits three people in particular for helping him achieve success. "I credit my mom, my grandmother and Bill Kramer, my high school coach. He is basically the one that got me on the right path. Coming from Cincinnati, I wasn't on the right track grade-wise. So, he got me on the right track and got me caught up with my grades." In addition to helping him with everything off the field, he is directly responsible for how Hyde lines up on the gridiron. "I was actually trying to play defense in high school and he let me play running back. He's just always been there for me."

- After spending his first year of high school in Cincinnati, he moved to Naples, FL, to live with his grandparents. "It was definitely for the better. I was headed down the wrong route in Cincinnati. Moving to Naples got me on the right route and back into sports and I was fortunate enough to earn a scholarship." After scoring his first NFL touchdown against Dallas in Week 1 of the 2014 season, Hyde gave his grandmother the ball to commemorate the occasion.

HT	WT	COLLEGE	CB
6-2	200	NORTH CAROLINA STATE
BORN 12.1.91 // PENNINGTON, NJ // PENNINGTON PREP HS, PENNINGTON, NJ 2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-4B IN '14

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied his career-high with 7 tackles and 2 PDs vs. Atl. (11/8)

GOLDMINE

- Johnson, a sports management and business administration major, spent the summer prior to his senior year as a sports marketing intern with French West Vaughan, a marketing/public relations firm based out of Raleigh, NC. During his internship, he worked with some high-profile athletes and clients which provided great experience. "I actually got to do a few things with MoGo, the flavored mouthpiece that [49ers QB] Colin [Kaepernick] wears. I did that and then I did a few things for [Cincinnati Bengals DT] Geno Atkins, getting him some suits for the ESPY's." Johnson believes if he weren't a professional football player, that he had found his calling in sports marketing. He said, "That was definitely something I would do. Just the interaction with players and businesses, I felt like that was cool."
- Hauling in 50 passes for 600 yards and 13 touchdowns is an impressive stat-line for a two-way player, which is exactly what Johnson was in high school. He split time as a receiver and defensive back during his time at Pennington Prep (NJ) High School. What made Johnson focus his attention on the defensive side of the ball moving forward? He credited a defensive mentality. Johnson said, "I was more of a physical player. Just the fact that I liked playing defense better. Playing basketball, I had a defensive mindset. So, I guess it just translated to football. I always had a defensive mindset."

JOHNSON'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- When he got the call that he was being drafted by the 49ers, San Francisco's 2014 first-round draft pick DB Jimmie Ward was one of the first phone calls that he received to congratulate him and tell him how excited he was that the two were going to be teammates. Ward and Johnson were roommates at the 2014 Senior Bowl.

GOLDMINE

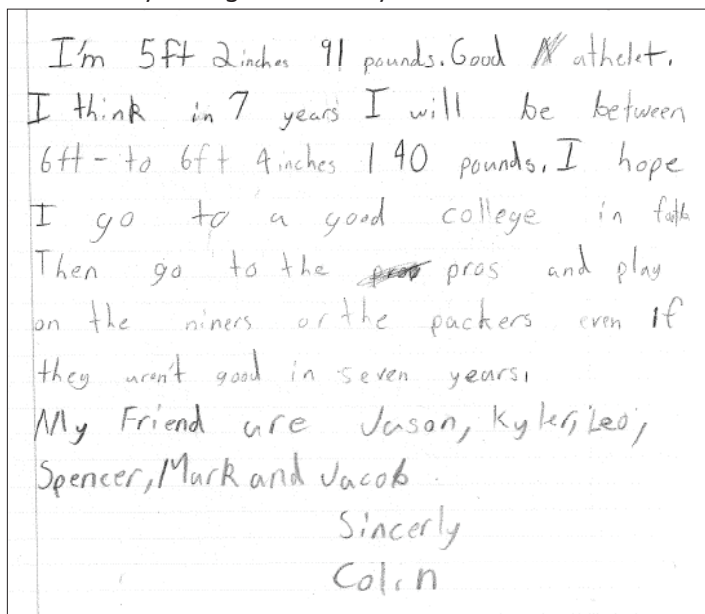

- In July of 2013, Kaepernick held the inaugural "Against All Odds" golf tournament at Del Rio Country Club in Modesto, CA, to benefit Camp Taylor, a camp for children with heart defects. The inaugural event raised over $200,000 to assist children and their families through Camp Taylor. In 2015, Kaepernick and fellow 49ers participated in the 3rd Annual tournament which raised funds in excess of $500,000. "It's a reality check every time I'm around these kids," said Kaepernick. "You have kids that go through so many different things, struggles that I have no idea about. They run around with smiles on their faces and having a good time. It helps me realize how blessed I've been. I feel very blessed to be around these kids and be their friend and try to help them out."

- Held the 2nd Annual Citi Colin Kaepernick Football ProCamp for boys and girls in grades 1-8 at St. Ignatius College Preparatory School in San Francisco. Throughout the camp, Kaepernick offered tips and instruction, highlighting the finer points of football. Campers were able to experience various stations specializing in fundamental football skills and participated in touch football games.
- In 2010, Kaepernick was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 2009 MLB Draft and was offered $30,000 to go to Arizona for a month and throw a few bullpen sessions. Looking ahead to his senior season as Nevada's quarterback, he declined the offer saying, "What would that say about me as a leader of the team?"

- Even as a 4th grade student at Dutcher Elementary School in Turlock, CA, Kaepernick knew he was going to play for the 49ers. In a letter that students had to write to their future selves, despite his small stature at the time, he saw something special in himself. He wrote, "I'm 5-2, 91 lbs and a good athlete. I think in 7 years i will be between 6 ft. to 6-4, 140 lbs. I hope I go to a good college in football, then go to the pros and play on the Niners or the Packers, even if they aren't good in seven years."

- Kaepernick, along with teammate Torrey Smith, attended Cleveland Browns CB Joe Haden's Second Annual Joe Haden & Friends Celebrity Softball Game in June of 2015. Part of the proceeds went to the support of Special Olympics while the athlete's jerseys were auctioned off after the game to support local youth sports from the Lake Health Foundation, who sponsored the event. Kaepernick also participated in the event's home run derby and took time to visit with a terminally ill 14-year-old along with the signing of numerous autographs.
- During the holiday season of 2013, Kaepernick paid a surprise visit to families at the San Francisco Ronald McDonald House. Through the giving spirit, he donated an Xbox One to the house for kids of the house to enjoy. "I think there's something special about kids that's uplifting. You see how pure-hearted kids are," said Kaepernick. Following the donation, Kaepernick spent time with the children, including friendly competition on the brand new console.
- One of Kaepernick's hobbies and favorite activities off the field is collecting and watching movies. "I own around 250 movies," said Kaepernick. His favorites are no surprise; action and comedy, specifically the movie Step Brothers. What might be a surprise to some people is that the 6-4, 250 lb QB also enjoys watching cartoons and Disney movies. "Some movies I own that most people wouldn't think I like are The Incredibles, Finding Nemo, Despicable Me and How To Train Your Dragon."

2012: 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 5), Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 7), Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 12)

GOLDMINE

• While Kilgore was preparing for the NFL Draft in 2011, he was also serving as a student-teacher at Hardin Park Elementary School working with special-education students in adaptive physical education classes. The day following his graduation from Appalachian State, Daniel hosted a field trip for his special-education students at ASU. The field trip included a tour of the school's athletic facilities, activities in the Sofield Family Indoor Practice Facility, lunch on the club level of the Appalachian Athletics Center and taking in a few innings of the Appalachian State-Western Carolina baseball game. While football is Daniel's next chapter in life, he aspires to be a coach and special-education teacher following his NFL career. "I'm very happy that I was drafted, but I absolutely love working with these kids," said Daniel. "I have had a great student-teaching experience and I know when my NFL career is over, I will get to work in another field that I love and that is working with special-education students and coaching."

KILGORE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Following his senior football season at Appalachian State, he stayed in the area to serve as a student-teacher at Hardin Park Elementary School (Boone, NC), working with special-education students in adaptive physical education classes.
- During his time at Appalachian State and with the 49ers, Kilgore spends his off days volunteering his time working with special-education students.

- Kilgore returned to his hometown of Kingsport, TN to support the 2015 Tribe Games, a series of athletic competitions for special needs kids from bowling to swimming to track and field. Kilgore's heart for special needs kids grew from volunteering in adapted physical education classes in the Watauga County (NC) School System while playing at Appalachian State. Kilgore wasn't just a casual observer at the games either, as he was a coach, motivator, fan and cheerleader for all 85 participating kids.

GOLDMINE

- Lemonier has traveled to Haiti multiple times, where both of his parents were born. Following hurricanes and earthquakes in Haiti, a few members of Lemonier's family on his father's side were hit hard, but they all remained safe. When the Lemoniers moved to Florida, many sports, including football, were new to them. Corey started out watching football and basketball on television. He played hoops through his sophomore year of high school before switching to football when he was a junior.

LEMONIER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Pronounced lemon-YAY.
- Despite the fact that his parents knew little about football, his father, a former offshore welder, and his mother, a nurse, instilled the value of hard work in Lemonier through their example and have supported him throughout his career. When discussing with his parents about the possibility of playing football, his father's advice was consistent with his hard-work mentality. He said, "I told him, 'OK, that's your choice. You can do whatever you want as long as you give it all you have.'"

- Following his playing career, Miller hopes to go back and coach his high school's football team. He said high school is the most crucial time where athletes need good coaches. "There's a big development stage between freshman and senior year of high school," he said. "Many important parts of kids' lives happen in that time. When you get to college, pretty much what you come in with is what you have. It'd be fun to be a part of." However, Miller described himself as a late bloomer who really developed athletically in college rather than in high school. "My coaches were very influential and played a big role in my life."
- Miller wasn't the most highly recruited player coming out of high school. In fact, saying he was under the radar was an understatement; Bruce wasn't even on the radar. UCF defensive coordinator Dave Huxtable, however, was evaluating other Georgia players and noticed Bruce on film. "He was playing tight end," Huxtable said. "Running and catching balls and making players miss. He was on the kickoff cover team and he was the first one down there on the kickoff cover team plays. Then I got to watch him play basketball. He's a 6-2 center, but he's underneath there just battling on the boards. He's a special guy." Huxtable was one of Bruce's major influences in becoming the two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. "He played a huge role for me," said Bruce. "I always looked at him for motivation and help. I went to Coach Hux because of the bond we made during recruiting and then playing for him at linebacker."

KYLE NELSON

HT	WT	COLLEGE	TE/LS
6-2	240	NEW MEXICO STATE
BORN 10.3.86 // CHINA SPRINGS, TX // CHINA SPRINGS HS, CHINA SPRINGS, TX 4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '14

GOLDMINE

- The Nelson's family secret to football longevity? Become a specialist. Kyle says the story goes like this: "My grandfather told my dad to learn how to long snap and my dad said, 'No, I'm okay. I'll play linebacker.' He played six years in the CFL, but said if he had learned how to long snap, he would have played a little bit more. It's gotten me where I am today, so I owe a lot to my snapping coach, my grandfather and my dad for getting me started."
- Always around football, in the summers, Kyle would help his dad, Mark, when he was coaching in the NCAA and CFL. He worked as ball boy and assisted the equipment staff with laundry. At a young age, Kyle got to see tight knit locker rooms and learned how successful teams work together on and off the field. Mark's career as a football coach meant many moves for the Nelson family. Kyle was born in Norman, OK and growing up, the family moved between Tulsa, OK and Canada three times and Kyle spent time living in George, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico before coming to California.
- In the past, Nelson has worked with middle school football players in Phoenix, AZ, teaching them the craft of long snapping as colleges begin recruiting students specifically to fill that role. "It helps the kids get into school," he said. "We do it to get them scholarships, get their school paid for so their parents don't have to."

NELSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Comes from a football family where he is a third generation member. His father, Mark, is the linebackers coach for the Montreal Alouettes in the Canadian Football League, with a quarter-century of coaching experience. Mark played in the CFL for six seasons and spent time coaching in the NCAA at Louisville, Arkansas Tech, Baylor and Kentucky. Kyle's grandfather, Roger, was drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1954. He played offensive tackle for 13 seasons for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from 1954 to 1967 and was elected into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1985.
- Growing up in Canada, the first sport he played was ice hockey. Following a move to the United States in middle school, he began playing soccer before playing football for the first time his junior year of high school.

- In his spare time, Nelson enjoys drawing, reading and going hiking. When Kyle was growing up, his family planned hikes on the weekends where he was able to witness the landscape of Arkansas, Georgia, Texas and Arizona. It translated to painting, where Kyle draws pictures of the outdoors such as oceans, forests and mountains. "I like turning color pictures into black and white, charcoal, Sharpies," he said. "It's a nice, relaxing hobby."

GOLDMINE

- Patton grew up in a couple of rough neighborhoods around Nashville, TN, where drug use and violence ran rampant “I probably have seen everything, people getting shot, all of it,” he said. Quinton’s friends realized his athletic abilities and made sure he stayed on the proper path. “They’d always tell me, ‘No, you’re not going to get into anything because we can see you have something that we don’t.’”
- Patton learned to cook from his father, Herman, who worked as a chef at Country Pride, a truck stop restaurant in Antioch, TN. “I always used to be in the kitchen, watching and learning them cook everything.” Quinton’s favorite dish to make is baked chicken with yams, sweet potatoes and brownies for dessert.
- At the 2011 Poinsettia Bowl, Patton showed leadership and maturity when he selflessly gave his bowl gift (a $300 Best Buy gift card) to a Make-A-Wish Foundation kid during the bowl’s community service event. Why? The child’s wish was to go on a shopping spree and Patton was happy to be able to grant that child’s wish.
- In addition, football helped Patton stay out of trouble. “I put so much time, so much effort in, believed in myself, and wasn’t afraid to take a chance,” he said. “My chance is football and I always have fun.” Patton lives by advice he received from his junior college football coach: “When hard work becomes fun, success will follow. If you aren’t working hard and having fun, you’re not going to get anything out of it.” It’s evident on the practice field and in the locker room. Patton makes his friends, teammates and anyone else he encounters, put on a smile and laugh.

PATTON’S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- He and fellow teammate, WR Bruce Ellington, visited Aspire East Palo Alto Charter School in May where the two spoke to K-12 students and took part in playground activities and arm wrestling.
- His football journey started at Coffeyville Community College (Coffeyville, KS) before transferring to Louisiana Tech to becoming a fourth-round draft pick by SF in 2013.

BORN 6.1.94 // CONCORD, NC // NORTHWEST CABARRUS HS, CONCORD, NC ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-5 IN '15

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Punted three times in his NFL debut vs. Min. (9/14), placing two inside the 20-yd. line with an average of 46.7 yds.
- Recorded 9 punts for 433 yds. (48.1 avg.) at Chi. (12/6), including a career-long 62-yd. punt.

GOLDMINE

- Every player has their own unique superstitions and quirks that get them ready for a game of football. For Pinion, it is all about his most important piece of equipment: the shoes. For every practice and game since high school, Pinion has tied his shoes the same way. He takes the laces on his right shoe and wraps them around the bottom, ties them and pushes the knot off to the right side, out of the way. "I like to take care of the important foot first," he says.
- While getting ready for the NFL draft, Pinion added Bikram yoga to his training regimen. In 105-degree heat with 40-percent humidity, he dropped 20 pounds. Pinion also added training at Madabolic Inc. in North Carolina, a hybrid of Cross Fit and Nine Rounds training techniques. "I really started to focus on the small things," said Pinion. "All the small things make the big picture."
- Pinion credits his longtime kicking coach Dan Orner as being the most influential person in his life. While preparing for the NFL Draft, Orner worked out side by side with Bradley, pushing him to get better every step of the way. "Just the way he handles his business and the person that he is," Pinion said. "It's something I try and mimic."
- If he wasn't playing football, Pinion would be earning his doctorate in management. With his father, Robert, being a CEO, he has always been interested in owning his own business and building relationships with consumers. However, he wouldn't be the first member of his family with a doctorate. His brother, Chris, is top five in his field and is getting his doctorate in physical chemistry at North Carolina, after earning two degrees as an undergrad at South Carolina. Pinion is two classes away from earning his degree, and after he has settled into his NFL career, he plans to finish what he started at Clemson.
- Pinion's family has a long history of serving in the military. Both of his cousins have served in Iraq, where one worked on tanks and the other went door to door assessing threats. His grandfather on his dad's side, Earl Mason, was about to have a tryout with the Dallas Cowboys as a punter, but he was drafted to serve in the Korean War, where he earned a purple heart. Pinion cites his grandfather as one of his heaviest influences in becoming a punter.

PINION'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- During his time at Clemson, Pinion worked closely with the "Be The Match Foundation," an organization that works to find matches within the bone marrow registry.
- After never playing pee wee football, Pinion received a football as a Christmas gift from his mother, Lorie, in middle school. His father took him out to the field and asked if he wanted to throw the ball. "I wanted to kick it. I grew up playing soccer," said Pinion. His dad put the ball on his foot like a tee, and Pinion knocked through a 35-yard field goal on his first try. "Do that again," he said. Second try, same result. "I guess you could say that it was a Christmas gift that turned into a dream," he said.

BORN 7.31.91 // MIAMI, FL // KILLIAN HS, MIAMI, FL 1ST YEAR // ACQUIRED D-5B IN '14

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his NFL debut vs. Min. (9/14).

GOLDMINE

- The strength and conditioning part of football is nothing new to Reaser. He grew up a track star in high school and credits the conditioning of the sport to his success on the field. "I definitely improved my speed. I would give that advice to anybody playing football coming up that wanted to improve their speed, track definitely helps. I definitely think that's the reason I can run the way I do now." In addition to his speed, he displayed his strength at the 2014 NFL Combine. Reaser's 22 reps in the bench press were tied for the most by a cornerback.
- Growing up on the coast in Miami, FL, Reaser enjoyed both fresh and saltwater fishing. The hobby provided a challenge similar to football. "I like the competition of fishing. I don't just go by myself. I don't know exactly what I like about it. Just the challenge of catching fish. I enjoy it."

REASER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Cousin of former Washington Redskins Safety Sean Taylor. Reaser was 16 when Taylor passed away. The two would run and train together.
- At the 2014 NFL Combine, he registered 22 reps in the bench press, tied for the most by a CB.
- When he first arrived at FAU, he began on the scout team. He eventually worked his way up for the Owls and became a 5th-round draft pick by SF in the 2014 NFL Draft.

AWARDS & HONORS

2013: Pro Bowl, Thomas Herrion Memorial Award, PFWA All-Rookie Team

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2013, Reid was one of only three players in the NFL to record 4-or-more INTs and 2-or-more FRs (LB Kiko Alonso 4 INTs/2 FRs; CB Alterraun Verner 5 INTs/2 FRs).

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered a career-high 13 tackles at Sea. (11/22).
- Recorded 9 tackles and his first career FF at Cle. (12/13), knocking the ball loose from Browns WR Brian Hartline.
- Registered the first sack of his career vs. Cin. (12/20), taking down McCarron for a three-yard loss.

GOLDMINE

- In May of 2015, Reid hosted his inaugural "Eric Reid Invitational," a golf tournament which raised money for the Baton Rouge Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation. The event brought in more than $70,000 throughout the weekend.

- Ironically, after choosing to stay local for college, Reid hoped to be drafted by the 49ers so he could be in Northern California's Bay Area. Eric's mother, Sharon Guillory-Reid, works as a traveling nurse. Since Eric was in middle school in 2004, she has been traveling back and forth from Baton Rouge, LA, and the Bay Area, working in hospitals in Oakland, San Jose and San Leandro, staying in each city two to three weeks at a time. Now, Eric remains close to his mother and has insight on the area.
- Growing up, Eric's parent's taught him the importance of hard work, the value of money and focusing on strong academics. His mother expected him to earn straight A's. When Reid wanted money to buy things, his parents made him get a job. He worked at a water park when he was 15 and at Wal-Mart at age 16. He would work four to eight hours a week, even between his regular high school football practices. Sharon bought him a 2001 Honda Civic, which the family still owns. But Eric had one ultimatum, if he wanted gas to be able to drive the car, he'd have to learn to budget his expenses.

REID'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was the recipient of the Thomas Herrion Memorial Award in 2013, given by the 49ers coaches to the rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity and turned it into a positive situation.
- Prior to WrestleMania 31 held at Levi's® Stadium, along with WWE Superstars, spoke to students about being an ally along with bullying intervention in March of 2015.
- A 2013 Pro Bowl selection, he was the first 49ers rookie safety in franchise history to be named to the Pro Bowl.

- In addition to instilling high character into Eric, his mother made an impact on the gridiron. Sharon also played tackle football, spending one season for the Baton Rouge Wildcats of the Women's American Football League. She played tight end and defensive end in the full-contact, tackle league. However, the Wildcats only lasted one season when the team folded due to Hurricane Katrina.

Originally a 1st-round (18th overall) draft choice by SF in 2013.

- Intercepted a pass by Cowboys QB Tony Romo in the 1st qtr. at Dal. (9/7). He returned the INT 48 yds. to the Dal. 2-yd. line. Reid has now registered an INT in each of his two season openers.
- As time expired in the first half, intercepted Seahawks QB Russell Wilson for his 3rd INT of the season and 7th of his career, and returned the pick 73 yds. It marked the longest INT return of his career and the longest by a 49er since LB NaVorro Bowman's 89-yd. INT return vs. Atl. (12/23/13).

- Made his NFL debut vs. GB (9/8), recording 7 tackles, 1 INT, 1 PD and 1 special teams tackle. His first career INT came off of Packers QB Aaron Rodgers. 2015 HIGHLIGHTS (CONTINUED)

- According to Elias, Smith became the first 49ers player to register 3 rec. TDs of 70-or-more yds. in the same season since WR John Taylor accomplished the feat in 1989. He is the first player in the NFL to reach the mark since Cleveland Browns WR Josh Gordon in 2013.
- Caught a 16-yd. TD pass from QB Blaine Gabbert at Det. (12/27), marking his 4th TD receipt. of the season.

GOLDMINE

- In April of 2015, Smith participated in the 137th edition of the White House Easter Egg Roll, which is the largest annual public event at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. More than 35,000 people gathered on the South Lawn to participate in egg hunts, live storytelling and fitness zones in conjunction with the First Lady's "Let's Move!" initiative.

- During his time in Baltimore, Smith started the Torrey Smith Foundation, which was established to provide support to at-risk youth with physical, educational and financial challenges. Visit TorreySmith.org for more information in regards to Smith's numerous efforts throughout the community.
- Smith's Foundation provides a full thanksgiving meal for children and families in need during "Torrey's Turkey Day," where he partners with local organizations, and prepares the meal and celebrates the holiday season with selected families. This program is meant to provide families with a night to take their minds off of the stress of their daily lives and to provide these families with a holiday meal and fun evening.

- In 2014, Smith held his Fourth Annual Celebrity All-Star Basketball Game. The "Battle of the Beltway" featured Smith and his former Ravens teammates taking on Washington Redskins LB Ryan Kerigan and his teammates where all proceeds benefited each player's respective foundations.
- After losing his brother in a motorcycle accident the morning of a Sunday Night Football game against the New England Patriots, Smith went on to register 6 recs. for 127 yds. and 2 TDs as the Ravens defeated the Patriots, 31-30. It marked Smith's third game with 100-or-more rec. yds. in his career.

- Smith has annually hosted his "Teaming up with Torrey" holiday toy drive, which benefits youth from the Baltimore area's Dogwood Elementary School, Sarah's Hope at Hannah Moore homeless shelter and the Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore.
- In May of 2015, Smith transformed a room at Gardenville Elementary (Baltimore, MD) into a literacy oasis with the focus on improving literacy in area schools. He later did the same for Moravia Park Elementary School (Baltimore, MD) two months later in July.

- When asked about having such a passion for community involvement and the inspiration behind it, Smith said that it goes back to his youth. He said, "For me, I've been giving back to the community since middle school. I actually won an award in middle school, the Martin Luther King Make a Difference Award. I've been giving back since day one, even when my family was the one receiving the help. I always felt like your time was just as important as your money. I've always given back to the community whether it's schools or shelters or whatever. I know what a lot of these families are going through and a lot of these kids are going through. I wanted to be that support system for them and that's why it's important for me to give back."
- In July of 2015, Smith joined the First Lady of Virginia, Dorothy McAuliffe, to visit Hollin Meadows Elementary School in Alexandria, VA to promote the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) and recognize the important role schools play in providing healthy meals to children during the summer.

- After a fire destroyed his hometown elementary school in January of 2014, Smith held a school supply drive in Fredericksburg, VA. He also has "Torrey's Back to School Program," held each August with the purpose of ensuring that 600 low-income elementary and middle school students have the basic items needed to begin the school year. Each kid is able to meet Torrey and, with Walmart's help, receive backpacks filled with all of the necessities to start off the school year successfully.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the first 49ers rookie O-Lineman to start every single game in a season since Cas Banaszek (1968-77), who started all 14 contests in 1968.
- Was 1 of only 3 NFL rookies (former 49ers LB Patrick Willis and Browns LT Joe Thomas) to line up for every single snap in 2007, and was 1 of 35 NFL players overall to accomplish the feat out of 1,898 total players.
- Recovered a fumble for a TD [vs. NYJ (12/7/08)], becoming the 6th offensive lineman in 49ers history to register a TD.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Part of an offensive line group that helped the team rush for 230 total yds. vs. Min (9/14), the most in franchise history during a season opening game. The O-Line helped pave the way for RB Carlos Hyde as he rushed for a NFL Week 1-high of 168 yds. and 2 TDs.
- The 49ers offensive line did not allow a sack on 25 atts. by QB Blaine Gabbert vs. Atl. (11/8), and helped pave the way for 133 yds. rushing. It marked the first time the 49ers did not allow a sack in a game since 10/13/14 at StL (36 atts.).

STALEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- During the 2015 offseason, he and his teammates invited Anthony Pineda, a 13-year-old who battled Leukemia, to be a "Captain for the Day" as part of ESPN's "My Wish" program.
- In 2014, Staley was selected as the Bobb McKittrick Award winner, which is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the longtime offensive line coach, during his 21 years of service to the 49ers. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999, and is voted on by the offensive line.

GOLDMINE

- In 2013, Joe was an ambassador for San Francisco's first Electric Run, a 5K race that benefits Smile Train, the world's largest cleft lip and palate charity. The race, which was held at Candlestick Park, raised $10,000 for Smile Train and more than 8,000 people participated in the event. "Anything that benefits children is just a great cause and I was very excited to put my name down for the charity and the event itself," Staley said.
- Entering his sophomore season at Central Michigan, Staley and the football program experienced a coaching change. New head coach Brian Kelly and offensive line coach Jeff Quinn asked the young tight end to make the switch to offensive tackle. He agreed and the transformation began. The 250-pound tight end began to wake up at 2 a.m. to consume a 2,000 calorie weight-gaining shake and would later work out twice a day to prepare his body for its new life in the trenches. In the first offseason, Staley added 20 pounds to his lean frame. By the time he was a senior, he reached 290 pounds and went on to become the first Chippewa to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

BORN 2.8.91 // SPARTANBURG, SC // PAUL M. DORMAN HS, SPARTANBURG, SC
 1ST YEAR // ACQUIRED D-3C IN '14

GOLDMINE

- The word versatile has been used frequently to describe Thomas on the football field. During his days at Paul M. Dorman (Spartanburg, SC) High School, Thomas played guard his freshman and sophomore years, tackle his junior year and tight end/fullback his senior year. He took that versatility with him to Clemson, where he predominantly played tackle, starting 30 games at the position, but he also started nine games at guard for the Tigers. Through all of his experience, Thomas knows what it takes to be successful at both the tackle and guard positions and will use that to his advantage with the 49ers. "Basically, out there (at tackle) you have to have quick feet and good hips," Thomas said. "But inside (at guard), you have to be strong and have a solid base."
- Despite a knee injury late in the draft process, Thomas was aware of the positive situation that surrounded him with the Niners. He understood that there was an established offensive line that would work with him to improve. "This injury could be a blessing in disguise," Thomas said. "To take a year to learn from those guys, and get stronger, get better, get my knee stronger. So, it's going to be a fun process."

THOMAS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Earning his degree in secondary education from Clemson, Thomas spent five months in 2013 as a student-teacher at Liberty High School in South Carolina. Part of his responsibilities were to create lesson plans that allowed students to interact, participate in group projects, and grow as young adults.
- Following his student-teaching experience, he went on to intern at Trammell & Mills, Law Firm, LLC where he was involved in client meetings and worked in general case management.

BORN 7.18.91 // MOBILE, AL // W.P. DAVIDSON HS, MOBILE, AL 2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '14

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered a career-high 7 tackles at NYG (10/11).
- Tied his career-high with 7 tackles vs. Atl. (11/8), while also adding 1 PD.
- Intercepted Bears QB Jay Cutler and returned it 29 yds. for a TD, marking his first career INT and first career TD at Chi. (12/6).
- Tied his career-high with 7 total tackles and added his first career sack vs. Cin. (12/20), brining down QB AJ McCarron for a nine-yard loss.

GOLDMINE

- Growing up in Mobile, AL, Ward knew when to separate himself from others in his neighborhood. Said Ward, "From where I come from, the neighborhood that I grew up in, a lot of people don't make it out. There's a lot of stuff. They either flunk out of school, end up having a child so they have to drop out of school and raise that child, or end up going to jail. It really just made me want to do something more than what my peers were doing." Ward would surround himself with positive influences to help combat the negative. "As I got older I hung out with positive guys. The guys I was hanging with, they wanted to do something with their life too. That really helped me out."
- While playing youth football, Ward went by the nickname 'Nico' and was teammates with former Alabama QB AJ McCarron with the Mobile Youth Football's Municipal Raiders. He played linebacker for the team that won multiple Youth Bowl Championships in Mobile.
- Ward's family is no stranger to professional athletics. He is the cousin of current NBA player, Caron Butler.

WARD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- On the day he was selected by the 49ers in the 1st round of the 2014 NFL Draft, drove three hours to New Orleans to purchase a new purse for his mother's birthday. He said, "I never really bought her anything expensive, because you're a kid. Growing up you would write a card, color a card or just buy a card or simple flowers. That's the most I ever did. She likes purses, so I just decided to get her a purse. It really didn't matter how much it cost, you just wanted to see that smile." His act of generosity shows his true character. "I'm not a selfish person. I just like to see and make other people smile too. It makes me feel better as a person."
- Was best friends growing up with 49ers 2015 2nd round draft pick, S Jaquiski Tartt. The two were teammates at W.P. Davidson High School in Mobile, AL.

2012: Thomas Herrion Award

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Intercepted Ravens QB Joe Flacco vs. Bal. (10/18) for his first INT of the season, 3rd of his career and his first since 12/28/14 vs. Arz.

GOLDMINE

- Wilhoite took an interesting road to the NFL that began at Division II Washburn University in Topeka, KS. With two redshirt years, one due to an injury, Wilhoite spent six years developing his skills as a safety. Despite playing in the Cactus Bowl, the Division II all-star game, he did not latch on with a NFL team following his final season, in 2010. He later signed with the nearby Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL. "I had never played linebacker in my life until I got to the UFL. I used that experience as a research project. There were former first round picks on the team that I could learn what the NFL was like. The coaches had all worked in the NFL, so I made sure to pay attention to them in case I ever got a shot."

WILHOITE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played collegiately at Washburn University, a Division II school located in Topeka, KS.
- Began his professional football career with the United Football League's (UFL) Omaha Nighthawks in 2011, where he appeared in four games.
- Following the UFL season, he went back home to work at Finish Line. A motivated Wilhoite earned a spot on the 49ers practice squad after a workout in 2011.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

- Wilhoite and his teammates visited San Mateo Juvenile Hall in collaboration with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY) during a 49ers Community Monday event during the 2014 season. The players opened up about their stories of struggle and perseverance, and split into small groups with the youth to discuss emotional triggers, alternatives and goals. “If you put your mind to something and you’re focused on something and you want something bad enough, you’re going to get it. And for a lot of these kids, they haven’t had anybody encourage or motivate them or show them how to get to that point,” said Wilhoite. “For us to come and show these kids support and show there are people who care, that’s important.”

- A mass media major at Washburn, Wilhoite would one day like to be a sports commentator. While in school, he completed an internship at WIBW radio where he did everything from pre- and post-production to occasionally participating on air.
- Wilhoite worked several part times jobs growing up, including Red Lobster. “I loved the job. I got to talk to people and I really wanted to make sure that their experience was really nice. They were spending good money, so I wanted to take care of them.”
- He was the recipient of the 2012 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion and is voted on by the coaches. After signing with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent from Washburn, Wilhoite made the 49ers practice squad and became a special teams captain after he was promoted to the team’s active roster in December.

IAN WILLIAMS

HT	WT	COLLEGE	NT
6-1	305	NOTRE DAME
BORN 8.31.89 // LONGWOOD, FL // LYMAN HS, LONGWOOD, FL 5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

- Part of a defensive line unit that held the Falcons to 17 yds. rushing on 14 carries (1.2 avg.) vs. Atl. (11/8). This marked the 4th fewest rushing yards allowed in a game by the 49ers since 2001.
- Registered his first career FF at Cle. (12/13), stripping the ball away from Browns RB Glenn Winston.
- Recorded his first sack of the season and first career FR vs. Cin. (12/20).
- Tied his career-high with 9 tackles and added 1 PD at Det. (12/27).

GOLDMINE

- Williams learned that one of the most important things you have to learn when entering the NFL is time management, and attributes much of the early lessons he's learned to the older veteran players. "Just seeing the older players has helped me. You'd think once you've been in the league for a few years, guys start to relax, but that's not the case here."
- Having relationships with people who have played in the league served extremely valuable to Williams. Former 49er Bryant Young coached Ian during his junior year at Notre Dame. "Just to have him as a reference and to be able to talk to him about stuff is huge, especially since he was out here for so long. He's like a legend and is going to be a Hall-of-Famer. It's great to have somebody like that who you're able to talk to and just run things by him."
- Teamed up with WWE Superstars leading up to WrestleMania 31 at Levi's® Stadium for the Make-A-Wish WrestleMania pizza party. Each kid in attendance was inducted into the WWE's Circle of Champions. The 49ers and WWE partnered to provide 26 tickets for kids at the event.
- Williams attended the 15th annual 49ers Foundation Winter Fest in March of 2015. The San Francisco 49ers organization spent a weekend in late March surrounded by the beautiful mountain vistas of Olympic Valley, CA, where they joined Olympians and other celebrities to raise over $1.7 million for the San Francisco 49ers Foundation at the 15th annual Winter Fest. The weekend-long event celebrated football, family, philanthropy, and food and wine, while supporting youth in the Bay Area through the 49ers Foundation and their outreach programming. The highlighted beneficiary for 2015 was the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute.

WILLIAMS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was coached by former 49ers DE Bryant Young during his playing days at Notre Dame.
- Assists 49ers Head Coach Jim Tomsula at the annual "Football Camp for the Stars," a camp for athletes with Down Syndrome who love football. Campers learn the fundamentals that put them in the middle of the action, resulting in an authentic football experience.
